

PRESS RELEASE

SAVE YOUR LAST DANCE FOR AEROSMITH

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AN ONLINE SURVEY has revealed the UK's top 'first dance' wedding tunes – with 'Don't Wanna Miss a Thing' by Aerosmith at number one.

The survey, conducted by UK-Disco.co.uk, polled over 1,300 UK DJs to identify Britain's Top 10 Wedding songs. Amongst the classic crooners were some surprise entries...

First Dance Wedding Songs – The Official Top 10

1. Don't Wanna Miss A Thing by Aerosmith
2. Everything I Do (I Do It For You) by Bryan Adams
3. Amazed by Lonestar
4. You're Still The One by Shania Twain
5. From This Moment by Shania Twain
6. Have I Told You Lately by Van Morrison
7. You're Beautiful by James Blunt
8. Truly Madly Deeply by Savage Garden
9. Angels by Robbie Williams
10. I Will Always Love You by Whitney Houston

The winner is...

Aerosmith surprised everyone by coming out on top of romantic classics like 'Amazing' by Lonestar and 'You're Still the One' by Shania Twain.

Bryan Adams's chart hit from the movie 'Robin Hood' came a close second – proving that 'Everything I Do, I Do it For You' has long-lasting appeal (or maybe it was Kevin Costner in tights).

New classics?

Every song in the Top 10 was at least 8 years old – the exception being James Blunt's recent chart hit 'You're Beautiful'. Will this tune become a wedding classic like Robbie's 'Angels' (no9), or is it destined for relegation?

Wedding Resources

Finding a DJ is blissfully easy at UK-Disco.co.uk. It's the UK's biggest directory of mobile discos and DJs, with more than 1300 listings. There's no need to register and the site is searchable by region, so brides and wedding-planners can quickly find and print a list of local DJs.

Top Wedding Songs – in full

UK-Disco will publish the full Wedding Song survey online in September, so that brides and grooms who are stumped for wedding music can browse the full list of more than 200 favourite 'first dance' songs.
